

5 March 2021

Your MTA Super balance will be transferred to the ATO on 22 March 2021

Currently, your account is considered inactive*. As a result, on 22 March 2021, your MTA Super balance will be transferred to the ATO.

Your estimated account balance is <<BALANCE>>.

What you need to do

To stay with MTA Super and continue enjoying your current member benefits, including any insurance cover you have, you must reactivate your MTA Super account before 19 March 2021.

You can reactivate your account by:

- Consolidating super from another fund into your account.

To consolidate super from another fund into your MTA Super account, log in to Member SuperSite at mtaasuper.com.au/member-login and click “Consolidate Super”

- Making a contribution into your account \(voluntary\).

To make a voluntary contribution into your account, log in to Member SuperSite at mtaasuper.com.au/member-login and click “Voluntary Contributions”. Contributions can be made via BPAY or EFT.

- Completing the Election to keep your account active form

To fill out the form go to mtaasuper.com.au/keep-account

You also have the option to transfer (rollover) your MTA Super account balance to another fund. If for any reason your chosen super fund does not accept this rollover, your account may still be transferred to the ATO instead.

To seek advice about your super go to mtaasuper.com.au/advice

If you take no action, your MTA Super account will be transferred to the ATO on 22 March 2021.

 Inactive means, in the last 16 months, we have not received a contribution into your account; and you haven't made any updates to your account details, such as changing investment options, insurance cover, or making or amending a binding beneficiary nomination.*
